Karen's Corner

"No One Has Ever Become Poor By Giving" ~ Anne Frank/Diary Of Anne Frank
The aftermath of Super Storm Sandy and the continual effects of a sluggish economy make us all hyperaware of those in need. Giving of yourself does not deplete funds but adds value to the quality of your life and your community. Get involved in your children's school, become a coach, read to the elderly or stock food at your local food pantry. Giving to benefit others will allow you to lead by example and I guarantee you will receive more from your selfless act than you give. Make the time in 2013 and allow the experience to broaden your horizons.
