thanks-giv-ing (thǎngks-gǐv ĩng)

1. An act of giving thanks; an expression of gratitude.

2. Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving Day in America is a time to offer thanks, of family gatherings, holiday meals, parades, giant balloons, and football. A time of turkeys, stuffing, and pumpkin pie.

Did you know that Americans consume...

- 256 million turkeys
- 649 million pounds of cranberries
- 1.6 billion pounds of sweet potatoes
- 998 million pounds of pumpkin

...yearly to celebrate this national holiday? WOW!

Did you know that there are at least three American towns named after Thanksgiving dinner's main course?

- Turkey, Texas, with 496 residents
- Turkey Creek, Louisiana, with 357 residents
- Turkey, North Carolina, with 267 residents

There are also eight places and townships named Cranberry and 20 places named Plymouth, after the location of the first Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving was first celebrated to give thanks for a good harvest by the colonists of Plymouth Plantation and members of the Wampanoag Indian tribe in 1621.

Just as the Pilgrims and Indians employed TEAMWORK during those difficult winters and initial years in America, in modern times we still encounter challenges involving autumn snowstorms and a sluggish recession that stubbornly continues. Ingenuity and teamwork will lead us forward.

Karen's Corner

As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them. - John Fitzgerald Kennedy

I could not agree more! I tell my children to "be your personal best" every day and they will be superstars. Let's plan for the New Year now, and change our course to make 2012 healthy and profitable. Set goals and aim high!
