Happy First Day of Spring!

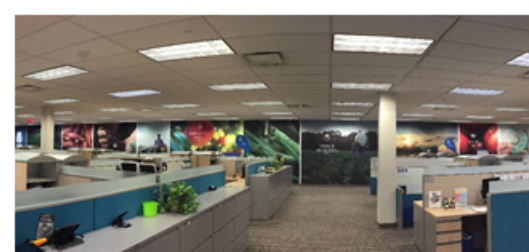

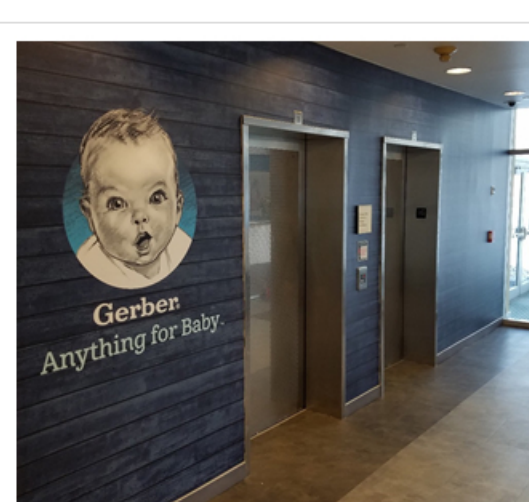

Today, March 20, 2018, is officially the first day of Spring! Blue skies, tulips, the leaves returning to the trees. Can't you see it?! To get you into the spirit, your friends at TeamPAR have created two videos for your amusement. We still cannot stop laughing at Wayne doing the chicken dance and Vinny is living out his dreams, as he slam dunks during March Madness! BTW, Vinny predicts Villanova to win... who do you think will go all the way? Let us know!

Gerber Case Study

Mission: TeamPAR was chosen as the Designer & Project Manager to conceptualize and execute custom wall murals for over 200 LF of walls throughout their corporate office & brand HQ.

Business Goals: To modernize this office to reflect Gerber's current graphic assets and brand strategies.

Testimonial: "I just wanted to take a moment to tell you all what a terrific job you did for us! The Dotti and Manifesto walls are up and look fantastic! I can't wait to see the rest. Please thank the entire team. MANY, MANY THANKS... Have a wonderful weekend." -Kerry Quigley, Senior Manager, Visual Identity & Package Design, Gerber Products Co.

TEAMPAR'S CRUSH OF THE WEEK

It is that time of year already --- when TeamPAR openly gushes on those industry friends that we like, respect, want to emulate or just make blush! TeamPAR is grateful that we are surrounded by clients and industry partners that are crush-worthy. Without further ado, here are the next four crushes from the Class of 2018!

Richard Davidson is TeamPAR's 5th of 10 Business Crushes of 2018! Richard is in facilities at Hackensack University Medical Center and is simply fantastic! With years of hands-on construction experience, he is the King of multi-tasking... Putting out multiple fires at a time! He is calm amidst chaos and a great team player.

Stephanie McCormick is TeamPAR's 6th Business Crush of 2018! Stephanie is a Facility Manager at Drew University. She knows her school inside and out and is welcoming towards her contractors. She always does what is right and remains calm amidst chaos. We are proud to be one of her "go to" vendors.

Joseph Juniak is TeamPAR's 7th of 10 Business Crushes of 2018! Joseph is the Director of Operations at Christina Seix Academy. He is a good man who works hard and is passionate about adding value and making a difference. His old-time values are refreshing and appreciated by TeamPAR!

Kevin O'Hara is TeamPAR's 8th out of 10 Business Crush of 2018! Kevin is a Construction Project Manager at Alfieri and is a great negotiator and seasoned professional. He is up front and a critical thinker, two key skills that great project managers should have. We have been servicing the needs of Alfieri buildings for 15 years and welcome the opportunity to work with Kevin in his new role.

Your Space Looks Good in Green

Going green is trendier than ever and for good reason. Each eco-friendly choice you make over the course of your construction project helps lead to a healthier living and working environment and ensures energy and resource efficiency. Not only is a "green" space greatly beneficial for the environment, it can also save you lots of money in energy costs over the long-term.

Carpet Tile Squares...So Old School!

Okay, I am being funny! Those 2'X2' carpet tiles are useful and extremely popular, but did you know that carpet planks, parallelograms, and even hexagons are available too? These fun shapes have the same backing systems and high-performance capabilities as standard carpet tiles, they just offer many more layout options to jazz up the open office floor plan that is growing in popularity.
