Karen's 20 Things in 2020

The year is 2020...wow, that sounds big and important. Honestly, to me, it sounds like the era of The Jetsons that I used to watch when I was a child.

The age of hand-held devices and instant information is not that old, but technology is advancing as fast as we blink, and we are forgetting how to interact and work without it.

We all have the best of intentions and set New Year's resolutions. Instead, I suggest we be kind to ourselves and to each other. Patience, acceptance of each other's differences, and active listening are all great goals of mine. Here are the first 10 topics I put on my top 20 list for 2020. Tell me, what are your goals?

In the Community

TeamPAR's Toy Drive to Benefit JBWS Success

Thank You To Our Selfless Elves!

Karen, I don't quite know what to say as I'm getting choked up just writing this email. Your unparalleled efforts to make the holidays bright for the victims and their children are completely unparalleled and have such an impact of which you can't even imagine. I had the honor of watching some of our mom's pick up their children's gifts and several of them were in tears, overwhelmed by the generosity of a donor that gave anonymously so their children would have a brighter holiday. The side benefit was also that they felt they had a community of love behind them in their journey. Thank you seems so inadequate in response to what you do.

Wishing you and your team the best of holidays.

Warmest regards,
Diane
